

DADSDUDES DOING IT

A PANEL DISCUSSION BY womengirlsladies™
@THEBROOKLYNMUSEUM
introductory comments by Elizabeth Sackler

2PM JUNE 20th

When are more men going to care about work/family balance?
And what is the role of men in the feminist movement, anyway?

These are just two of the questions that will be tackled by WomenGirlsLadies in this provocative discussion at the Brooklyn Museum right in time for Father's Day. Representing the perspectives of four unique generations, we'll wrestle with women's ever-evolving relationship with the men in their lives— fathers, partners, and sons— and the men out in the world, from Rush Limbaugh to Barack Obama.

Come and join the long overdue conversation, with special guests Susan Faludi and Jessica Valenti and others.

The event is free... but bring your voice!
There will be door prizes!
