

CEO
Phoenix, AZ

Arizona Foundation for Women is seeking a highly motivated and successful leader to manage its nonprofit operations and guide staff with passion about women's issues e.g. prevention of domestic and family violence. Reports to Board of Directors.

Essential Function:

To lead, communicate and implement the strategic goals and objectives of the Arizona Foundation for Women. Demonstrated fundraising success through individuals, foundations, corporations, grants and events. Provide direction and passionate leadership to achieve the vision and mission by leveraging resources and ensuring the values, growth and engagement of the organization is sustained within the community.

Primary Responsibilities:

Direct and manage the overall operations, management, programs and fundraising of the Arizona Foundation for Women.
Implement established strategic goals and objectives in accordance with the Arizona Foundation for Women business model.
Work with the Board of Directors to fulfill governance guidelines and practices.

Minimum Qualifications:

Bachelor's degree or equivalent years experience in direct or related field, i.e. public administration, social studies, etc. Master's degree a plus.
8 years progressive management/leadership experience.
Broad knowledge of women's issues including the prevention of domestic and family violence.
Excellent verbal and written communication skills.
Ability to work with diverse staff and committed Board of Directors.
Demonstrated successful fundraising results and experience with proven public and private grant writing experience.
Passionate about issues that impact women and the vision and mission of the Arizona Foundation for Women.

Salary commensurate with experience. Excellent benefits package.

If you are interested, please send your resume to the Arizona Foundation for Women, 2828 N. Central Avenue, Suite 1200, Phoenix, AZ. 602-532-2800, Attn: Connie Robinson. Resumes accepted through 2/05/2010.

EOE